

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

The access to vital information is the cornerstone of a healthy democracy and the loosening of these rules will threaten that access.

I urge you to preserve what little protection is left and stop the homogenization and monopolization of the media.